

Crossley and Beaton win awards

Administrator, 6 November 2012 08:57

At the recent Lewis and Harris Football Association Player of the Year awards, Carloway midfielder Dan Crossley was nominated for both the senior and under 21 categories. David Beaton was also nominated for goalkeeper of the year.

Crossley won the under 21 player of the year award and was placed runner-up to senior player of the year, behind Scott Maciver of Stornoway Athletic. Beaton picked up the goalkeeper of the year award. Well done to both players on receiving these awards which cap a fine season for the club.

Dan Crossley receiving the Lewis and Harris under 21 player of the year award from Robert Mackay.

Goalkeeper of the year David Beaton